CIA BRIEFING OF THE FOREIGN SERVICE INSPECTION CORPS

19 January 1955

1. In order that CIA may improve future presentations of this briefing, it is requested that you comment on any or all of the following points or make any other observations which you deem appropriate concerning the whole or any part of the briefing. It will therefore be appreciated if you prepare a critique of the briefing using the questions contained below as a guide and cover any additional subjects which are pertinent to this purpose. Your comments should be given to Mr. Raymond Miller, Chief Inspector, Foreign Service Inspection Corps, at your convenience.

2. You will recall that this lecture presentation was given under the following titles:

- a. Organization of the Agency and Overseas Activities
- b. Foreign Intelligence Operations
- c. Overseas [] Operations
- d. Agency Overseas Communications

g. Agency Inspection Problems

3. In addition to any other comments you wish to make, your views are sought on the following points:

- a. Was the allotment of time adequate to each subject?
- b. Was the scope and range of subject matter presented helpful to you in understanding mutual problems of the Agency and the Foreign Service in the conduct of their respective overseas missions?
- c. Should more time have been allotted (1) at the end of each presentation and (2) in the general discussion period, for questions and answers?
- d. In your view would an annual exchange of ideas on problems of mutual concern between members of the Foreign Service Inspection Corps and the Agency be profitable?
- e. How could this particular briefing be improved to make it more meaningful as an initial indoctrination of Foreign Service Inspection Corps personnel on the Agency's overseas activities?
